

For students who are POLITICAL SCIENCE majors:

The Department of History and Political Science suggests that History majors take the following classes in their first semester.

The following schedule represents what a “TYPICAL” Political Science major might take.

ENG	101	English Composition	3 hours
MAT	105	Contemporary Math (OR appropriate higher level math)	3 hours
PLS	101	Intro to Political Science (OR PLS 201: American National Government)	3 hours
HIS	101	Western Civ. (OR HIS 103: World Civ., OR HIS 211: US History)	3 hours
BIB	110	Old Testament (OR BIB 120: New Testament)	3 hour 15 hours

You may have AP credit, dual enrollment, or transfer hours that would change this “typical” schedule. You may be on a varsity sports team or in the choir and may need to adjust this schedule. The truth is that no one is typical, but this schedule is a good place to start. When you meet with your advisor to register, be sure to tell him/her about your specific set of circumstances so you end up with YOUR schedule and not just a typical schedule.

Chapel: Freshmen are required to take a total of 4 semesters of chapel. Freshmen are automatically enrolled in Freshman Chapel/Blue & Gold 101 for their first Fall semester.
